"We Are Still on the Map and Our Mission is Not Ended,"
Says Keynote Speaker

MUST ENFORCE THE LAWS

National Chairman Raps Two Major Parties for Lack of Reference to Liquor
Traffic

Lincoln, Neb., July 21.—"We are still on the map and our mission is not ended," Aaron S. Watkins, keynote speaker at the Prohibition Party's thirteenth presidential convention, told the delegates at its opening session here this morning. "We must place in the field a ticket of real presidential size and make a campaign that will win the respect of all thinking men and women."

Mr. Watkins said that the prohibition question was not settled and would not be "until the machinery of government is attached and the lawbreakers surrender unconditionally."

"The experiment of even partially enforced prohibition," he said, "has been so eminently satisfactory and the demonstrations of moral and industrial improvements so convincing that millions of halts between two opinions have been convinced beyond a shadow of a doubt."

Mr. Watkins ran on the Prohibition ticket in 1908 and 1912 as its candidate for the vice-presidency. He is professor of English in a school at Germantown, Ohio.

Are Celebrating

The delegates prepared to give over much of the three day and night sessions to jubilation over John Barley corn.

To this end several celebrations and a dozen or more orators have prepared speeches celebrating the party and its fight against liquor and condemning the Democratic and Republican conventions for lack of definite action of the question.

The opening session found the delegates almost unanimously in favor of William Jennings Bryan as the presidential nominee.

Talks on League

The Prohibition keynote speaker emphasized the interest of the prohibition party in other questions, confronting the country. He declared that "the whole country desires the league of nations, and that it would finally be adopted, but he characterized President Wilson's course in handling it as having "too much the flavor of autocracy" and said his plan could not be adopted "without radical revision."

On prohibition Mr. Watkins said: "When we inquire of the leaders of the two major parties why an iron clad prohibition plank was omitted from each of the party platforms we are blantly informed that the question is settled. Years ago when we pleaded for such a plank they said that it never can be settled or at any rate it is too late to make the fight. Now it is too late to mention the subject. I wonder when would have been the psychological moment that the question of prohibition would have been strictly up to date."

"This is a subterfuge of course. Merely setting down a group of figures does not solve a problem and a declaration of war does not conquer a nation. Neither does the passage of a law, statutory or constitutional settle any question. Prohibition is not settled and will not be settled until the machinery of government is attached and the lawbreakers surrender unconditionally."

"Every refusal to declare for law enforcement simply encourages the war forces to believe that the present wave of enthusiasm will recede and that the people will soon forget. Then the fight can be renewed with some hope of success. Hence the silence of these platforms is a wet silence and will be so interpreted. Neutrality is now an impossibility. One side or the other is defeated and the parties that permit such a result have simply refused to take the oath of allegiance."

Not a Weather vane

"There is but one party in the field whose platforms have never been water vane and whose policy has always been a constructive one. Our doctrines have been the political history of the United States, written prophetically. The steps of progress that our statesmen demanded as justice and predicted as the inevitable other parties ignored, ridiculed, opposed and finally accepted without quotation marks or the least shadow of credit. We have risen above faction, class or blind partisanship and have been the champions of the average man, the party of the whole welfare of the nation. We have asked not for credit but for information. Who is my neighbor? And we have seen in every injustice a demand and in every heartbreak a call to service, and we have stood true to our conviction that though the political heavens might fall.

We are still on the map and our mission is not ended. We are hired for a day's work enlisted till the war is ended and there remaineth yet much land to be conquered. Our work has always been a double one. To formulate the real political issue and stand for them till enacted into law and to instruct and inspire in the development of high ideals and sound civic consciousness that law will be enforced and matters of life and character outside the realm of statutes shall be made real by the moral forces of the nation.

We will have great reforms waiting for adoption and great twentieth century problems yet to be solved. We do not face a half defiant and despotic liquor power as many have said, but a leading statesman is sidelining the question of law enforcement and governors and legislatures (Continued on Page Eight)

RATE INCREASE IS DENIED

Duluth, Minn., July 21.—Duluthites without motor cars or friends with motor cars walked to work today in staid, formal attire. The strike of the Duluth street railway company cars were shut down by the company because of a strike of car men. Not a car wheel was turning this morning during the hours when men go to work. Manager Warren of the car company issued a statement in which he declared he would find a way to run cars. Carmen declare they will make the strike 100 percent perfect. It was stated last evening by the company employees that they would vote on a strike for July 28 and abide by that decision. However, last night's meeting developed a strike spirit and it was decided to remain away from work today. The men demand a 20 percent increase. The car company declares it is financially unable to pay more than the present 10 cents fare. The city commission Monday refused to grant an ordinance raising car fares to 6 cents without a referendum vote.

Poll of Legislature to be Taken to Determine Standing Upon the Amendment

Washington, July 21.—Not only the assurances given by Governor J. M. Cox of his support of the ratification campaign in Tennessee but results of the poll now being taken of the state legislature has increased the confidence of suffragists that the 36th state will be won within the next few weeks.

The poll of the legislature now being taken by the national women's party shows up to date the following situation: Senate—Membership 33, necessary majority 17, pledges 11, noncommittal 3, opposed 3, leaving 6 to get and 18 still unheard from. House—Membership 99, necessary majority 50, pledges 34, noncommittal 3, opposed 3, leaving 16 to get and 79 still unheard from. The majority of those opposed or noncommittal is explained as not being but are only doubtful as to the ability of action by the present legislature on the question. Issues Call for Meeting of North Dakota Interests

BANKERS ARE INTERESTED

Delegation to Appear Before the Interstate Commerce Commission

(Special to The Tribune)

St. Paul, July 21.—An adequate car supply to move the large grain crop of the northwest will be demanded by a committee of grain men representing the four states of Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and Montana. These men will go to Washington to urge the Interstate Commerce commission to speed up the car movement or the grain crop. The Montana delegation has not arrived yet, but Gov. Sam V. Stewart of Montana, wires that the state would join in any movement initiated. Those in touch with the situation declare that without an ample car supply the northwest grain producer will be at a disadvantage to the southwest states.

Young Makes Call
Some railroad commissioners from each state will head the separate committees from each state. They will select other members of the committee from bankers, public officials, grain men, and millers from their own states.

Congressman George M. Young of North Dakota, has issued a call for a meeting of the North Dakota Interests to be held at Fargo, July 30. A committee to represent the state will be selected at that time.

Unless cars are forthcoming to move the new crop, it is said, banks cannot supply necessary funds. Farmers cannot collect cash for their grain and business will suffer.

Need Is Pressing

In the formal statement calling a state meeting at Fargo, the North Dakota representatives say "last year's crop has scarcely been moved to the markets as yet. The present crop outlook promises an increased yield over last year of more than 50 percent. The questions of how to move those crops and how to finance it are pressing for immediate solution."

"Unless the crops can be moved in season the situation will be full of danger to farmers, bankers and business men and a large number may be driven into bankruptcy."

MONTANA WILL HAVE BIG CROP,
EXPERT REPORTS

Conditions Good in Most Parts of the State, With Grasshoppers
Doing Some Damage

Helena, Mont., July 21.—With the exceptions of Valley and Flathead counties and the Blaine Root section reports from 21 counties in Montana for the week ending July 16 received by Charles L. Greenfield, commission of agriculture and publicity were to the effect that crop conditions are excellent and there has been no recession in favorable conditions which have been in evidence during the season.

Since these reports were received there have been no rains in Flathead and also in several counties in the northern part of the state where rain was needed though crops were not suffering. In several counties there are reports of grasshopper damage, but the extension service of the agricultural college at Bozeman has taken steps to fight the plague and the prospects are that in those counties in which there are farm bureaus and county agents the grasshopper invasion will be controlled without serious damage.

All the counties report livestock in good condition and plenty of feed on the ranges. The first cutting of alfalfa has been heavy. In many parts of the state the first cutting is already in the stack and other sections cutting has been about concluded.

Bergdoll, who surrendered to Judge-Advocate Major William Saloe, was immediately made a prisoner in Castle William. Besides Judge Keenan he was accompanied by his half-brother, Charles Brown.

Secretary of State Holds That Old Petitions Cannot be Worked Off at New Election

CAPITAL REMOVAL SOUGHT

May Continue Efforts by Appealing to Supreme Court to Order Petitions be Accepted

Request of citizens of New Rockford that the question of amending the state constitution to provide the removal of the state capital from this town to New Rockford be placed on the ballot (this fall) on the strength of the original petition filed four years ago has been refused by Thomas Hall, Secretary of State.

The answer of the Secretary of State was given after an examination of the question. The New Rockford people also submitted the question to the office of the Attorney General for a legal opinion.

The law provides that petitions which must number 20,000 for the placing of a proposed constitutional amendment on the ballot, must be filed within 120 days of the election. The election will be on Nov. 3, so that the time limit has passed. Under Mr. Hall's ruling therefore the question cannot be voted upon this fall.

Barred From Vote.
It is understood however that the New Rockford people will file mandamus proceedings in the supreme court in an effort to put the question to a vote.

The petitions filed four years ago were involved in a supreme court decision to the effect that the constitutional amendment providing means of changing the constitution by popular vote was not operative without special legislation. Later the supreme court held the opposite.

Mr. Packard's Ruling.
Frank E. Packard, assistant Attorney General, holds that the petitions of the New Rockford people filed four years ago and still on file are not sufficient for use this year for these reasons:

That the matter was finally disposed of by the highest court. That petitions must be used within a reasonable time.

It is pointed out by many that the petitioners of four years ago may be dead or non-residents of the state at this time.

SEER DEMANDS
MURDER REWARD
FROM OFFICIALS

Madame de Mules, Said to be St.
Paul Clairvoyant, Acts in Turtle Lake Murder Case

DETECTIVE IS WITH HER

peared Before Her Eyes in St. Paul Led to Arrest.

He Says

Madame A. de Mules of St. Paul said to be a clairvoyant today is after the reward for the capture of Henry Layer, serving a life term in the penitentiary for the murder of the Wolf family of seven and a child, boy near Turtle Lake in April.

The Madame related her story to various officials at the statehouse yesterday afternoon, and today she is understood to be in the Turtle Lake region in McLean county, reviewing the situation.

The Madame was accompanied by G. W. King, St. Paul detective who had been engaged by the Attorney General's office to aid in tracing the murderer of the Wolf family. And here is the Madame's story, as told to officials.

King had found the Madame a won deful help in tracing down criminals. He has gone to her time and again, in St. Paul.

Called Into Case

He was called into the Turtle Lake case and went over the ground. Then he went back to St. Paul. And he consulted the Madame. And the Madame, using her powers to see the unseen, soon had a mental picture of the whole crime which included Layer.

Then King went back to Turtle Lake and he gave information to the local officers who made the arrest and obtained the confession, which Layer now is trying to repudiate.

Therefore the Madame deserves the reward she says. And she is going to get it if she can. She also let it be known that there was another person mixed up in the crime. It is said and there is another unsolved murder in that region, according to official with whom she talked and she will not divulge the information if she does not get this reward.

She is willing to share with Chief of Police Chris Martinson the $1,000 reward offered by Governor Frazier, which has not been paid. But the other rewards including the Attorney General's $1,000 offer and the offers of local people, which she would not be given to officials, should go to her, she believes.

The story told by Madame de Mules was related to men in the Attorney General's office and it is understood she sought an audience with Governor Frazier who is out of the city.

This morning she and King left on the Soo railroad for Turtle Lake.

Chicago, July 21.—Danger of an immediate strike of railway workers of the country apparently has disappeared when the 2,000 representatives of the 11 railway crafts resumed their conference here this morning to consider the $60,000,000 wage increase granted by the Railway Labor board in its decision handed down yesterday.

Yesterday's group conferences extended far into the night without any decision as to acceptance or rejection of the award having been reached. At the close of last night's conference however William G. Lee, grand president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, emphasized that no immediate strike was in prospect.

COMMUNISTS IN ENGLAND PLAN TO FORM PARTY

Will Try Hand at Political Action to Overturn Form of Government

London, July 20. An attempt will be made to form a Communist party in England, August 1, at a national convention of "left wing" socialist and industrial organizations. Socialist bodies of the extreme left have been holding "unity conferences" intermittently for several months with that end in view.

The invitations to the convention point out that three points are considered cardinal by the promoters, the dictatorship of the proletariat, the soviet system, and adhesion to the Third Internationale.

The direct promoters of the convention are the British Socialist party, the anti-war majority section of which was once the Social Democratic party; the Workers' Socialist Federation, composed of Miss Sylvia Pankhurst's followers; and the Communist Unity group of the Socialist Labor party. The Socialist Labor party has not signified its intention to participate in the convention.

A great deal of discussion has arisen over the attitude the powerful Labor party may take toward the convention. The British Socialist party is affiliated with the Labor party, but the Workers' Socialist Federation and the Communist Unity group have refused to be connected with it, and the Labor party itself so far has made no official pronouncement concerning the proposed convention.

There is a difference of opinion among the political groups as to whether the convention will succeed in forming a Communist party with a following sufficiently large to give it any considerable influence, but it is considered virtually certain that as a

SEEKS MISSING LINK IN ETHER

Holyoke Professor Meeting Some Success in Investigation of Waves.

TRYING TO BRIDGE THE GAP

Bunch of Waves in the Ether is Lost and No One Knows Whither They Go or What They Do.

South Hadley, Mass.—The scientist has another missing link for which to search. This time, however, it is not the biologist who seeks the link but the physicist. A bunch of waves in the ether is lost and no one knows whither they go or what they do. Some of their associates were long ago found, a few others were investigated more recently, but others are still missing. Wireless waves, heat waves, light waves and the waves of the X-rays have been made clear to us. Yet there is an unexplained gap, a gap that is never being filled today than it ever has been in the past.

Trying to Bridge the Gap. A Mount Holyoke college professor, Elizabeth R. Laird, is finding some success at one end of the gap and investigations at the other end were completed some time ago. At the one end are the ultra violet rays and at the other are the Entladungstrahlen and soft X-rays. It is with this latter class that Miss Laird has had considerable success.

The first of the waves of radiation to be studied were those of visible light. The spectrum revealed the attention of the physicist, who found that the interval from the red to the violet was, in the language of the physicist of sound, less than an octave, the violet rays having less than twice the frequency of the red ones. Naturally the question arose as to exactly what was outside this brief space of waves capable of affecting the sense of vision.

Where the Link is Missing. And so outside were found infra-red waves of heat and above these, beyond another gap, were found Hertzian waves used in wireless, while at the lower end of the spectrum appeared the celebrated ultra-violet ray. Then came the long gap, the missing link for which the physicist is searching, and after that the Entladungstrahlen, joined to the X-rays. Last on the scale are the gamma-rays, probably in the neighborhood of two five-billionths of an inch in length. From the waves of wireless which are often ten miles long to the minute waves of the gamma-rays, the visible and the invisible spectrum is continuous save for the two harrowing gaps on opposite sides of the visible section.

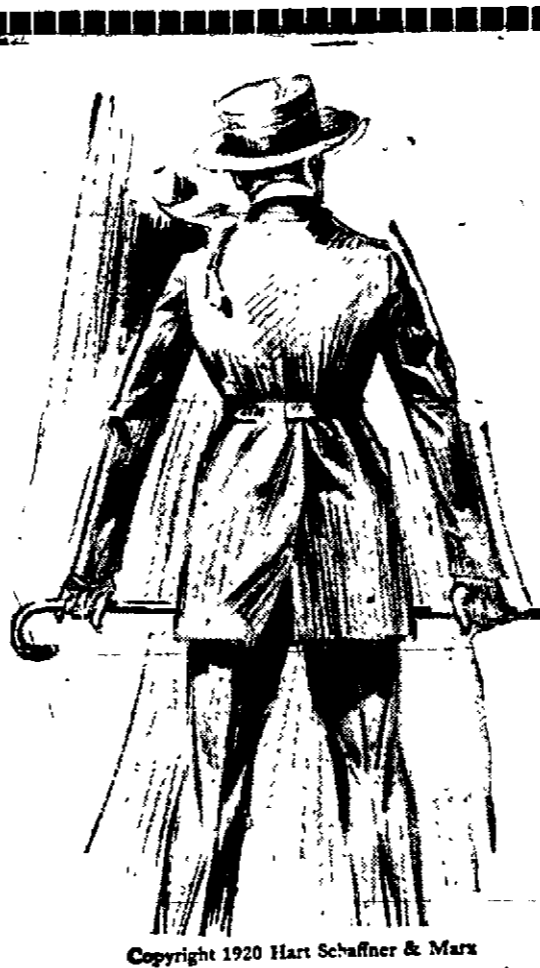

Armed with a diffraction grating graduated to the ten-thousandths of an inch, a vacuum of high order and apparatus for the production of slow moving electrons, the scientist is on the trail of a wave so small that almost 10,000,000 of them measure but an inch in length. And the physicist gives promise of finding his missing link before his brother scientist, the biologist.

GERMAN ART "AMERICANIZED"

Berlin Theater Manager Sees "Menace" — High Taxes on Dramas.

Berlin, Germany.—Taxation amounting to something like 55 per cent of gross revenue and heavy running expenses are responsible for the recent closing down of 60 first class theaters in Germany. Many theatrical and operatic companies are said to be in some financial straits. Few persons can afford to pay for the higher priced seats at the present increased rates and the moving picture houses, with their popular prices, are reaping the benefit.

The director of the Lessing theater, home of the drama in Berlin, told the Tagblatt that theatrical budgets can no longer be balanced. The director means he said was "Americanism" by which he explained he meant art for amusement's sake, not for art's sake.

CHARGE CRIMES TO FATHER AND SON AT STEELE

Daughter Accuses Father of Murder of Insurance Man and Infant

BODIES ARE DISCLOSED

Steele, N. D., July 21.—James C. Clayton, a 40-year-old farmer, is accused by his daughter, Mrs. Frances Sheldon of Baldwin, N. D., of killing Ed. Lettke, a hull insurance agent, and a baby born to her before she was married, in an alleged confession in the hands of State's Attorney George Musson, of Kidder county.

On Thursday Clayton will be placed on trial in the Kidder district court charged with rape. His daughter, Laura, aged 14, is the state's principal witness.

Extensive digging operations in the Clayton farm, conducted within a few days, failed to disclose the bodies of Clayton's supposed victims.

Musson said that the investigation had extended not only to the case of Lettke and the baby, but also to other cases of supposed disappearance of persons in the district adjacent to the Clayton farm. All inquiries, Musson said, had failed.

Roy Clayton, a 26-year-old son of James Clayton, also is under arrest charged with rape, and will be tried following the disposition of his father's case.

The whole section of Kidder county about 20 miles southeast of Steele, where the supposed murders occurred, is in a state of excitement as a result of the case.

Officials who organized searching parties scoured up great areas in the hope of uncovering the skeletons of the supposed murder victims, operations being conducted in accordance with directions given by Mrs. Sheldon.

Mrs. Sheldon's story is in the hands of the state's attorney, and was given following the arrest of her father and brother on the rape charge. Laura Clayton's story, related by her to her married sister, Mrs. Sheldon, brought about the arrest of Clayton and his son.

Denies Additional Murders

Mr. Musson denied today that the Sheldon confession or statement covered supposed additional murders, though admitting that he and other officials had investigated beyond the Lettke and baby case.

Mrs. Sheldon's story of the Lettke murder is to the effect that there was a liquor party near the Clayton farm on the night that the insurance agent disappeared. Her father, Mrs. Sheldon asserts, had Lettke's watch following his disappearance.

Officials have not confronted Clayton with the charges made by his daughter, Musson said today.

NEW COMMITTEE NAMED TO AID COMMISSIONERS

President Young, of the Commercial Club, Appoints Business Men

P. C. Remington was today named chairman of the committee on public improvements of the Commercial club. Other members of the committee are George W. Lahr, Roy Logan and Frank Millholland.

The committee was appointed by C. L. Young, president of the Commercial club, at the request of the city commission, which adopted a resolution at a meeting this week asking Mr. Young to take this action.

The commission desires the cooperation, advice and assistance of the committee in carrying out the many contemplated improvements for the betterment of the city. Feeling that Bismarck is to have a rapid growth in the next few years, and knowing that the progressive people of the city want public improvements to keep pace with the growth of the city, the commission believes that every effort should be made to keep the expansion of the city the proper lines.

WORLD'S RECORD FOR LAUNCHING SHIPS PLANNED

Hog Island Officials Will Send
Seven Vessels Into Water
Within Fifty Minutes

Philadelphia, July 21.—As a climax to its many notable achievements since it was created as a war emergency, Hog Island today planned to establish a new world's ship launching record.

Seven 7,500-ton steel cargo carriers, the last on the ways, at the big plant, will be sent overboard, according to the arrangement, within 50 minutes or less. Officials of the American International Ship Building corporation claim this is the first time such a feat was ever attempted.

WORLD'S COSTLIEST APARTMENTS RENT FOR MERE $3.50 PER HOUR

The most expensive apartment house in the world—so the real estate men say—at 820 Fifth-av., New York. Inset, three residents—Mrs. Robert Goelet (top), C. K. G. Billings, Mrs. Harold I. Pratt.

This Apartment House Located on Fifth Avenue, Faces Park, and "Has Everything"

New York, July 20.—Have you found a place to live? If you haven't, what about this?

Twenty-two-room apartment on Fifth avenue, facing Central Park. Nine baths. Modern appointments throughout. Individual laundry.

The rent? Oh, a mere matter of $30,000 or so a year, about $3.50 an hour, depending upon which floor your apartment is situated.

Of course, this is unfurnished, but you have the satisfaction of knowing that the "finest" in your apartment is the finest obtainable, floors of black walnut, imported mantels, etc.

"For Rent" Hardly. Even if you happen to have $30,000 that you don't know what to do with, it is hardly likely that you will be able to get an apartment in the house on Fifth avenue and 63rd street. Most of the apartments were rented on long-term leases before the building was finished. In such cases the apartments were divided to suit the tenant; the floor space was cut up according to the ideas of the man who was to occupy it.

This explains why some of the apartments contain only a mere 13 rooms. Such tenants probably did not have large families and chose instead large rooms. There is only one apartment to each of the twelve floors, so it was possible to suit the taste of each individual without interfering with anyone else.

"Finest in World." Even in New York $30,000 a year is a great deal of money to pay for rent, and the apartment house at No. 820 Fifth avenue is the most expensive one in the city. "And the finest apartment house in this city," real estate experts say, "is the finest apartment house in the world."

Among those who have apartments there are C. K. G. Billings, the noted horseman; Robert Goelet, prominent member of the "400"; Harold I. Pratt of Standard Oil; Mrs. Anna Harkness, Alexander Smith Cochran, the millionaire yachtsman, and H. Mortimer Brooks.

The apartments are furnished in keeping with the rentals. The most costly rugs, draperies, furniture, have been obtained. One tenant is reported to have spent the modest sum of $250,000 in this manner.

In 1914, the average farm in the province of Quebec was worth $14 an acre; now it is worth $12 an acre.

MOSLEM REVOLT PLOT IS BARED

Constantinople, July 19.—(Delayed) Wholesale arrests were made here today in connection with an alleged plot to promote a general uprising of Moslems against foreign occupation. The confession of one plot is reported to have implicated high officials of one of the extreme powers in the conspiracy, which was directed chiefly against the British.

TAX COLLECTOR WILL CHECK UP ON MERCHANTS

B. E. Hitchcock Assigned to Bismarck Territory by Internal Revenue Department

"The returns filed by ice cream sellers will be checked back against their wholesale purchases, and they will be required to show reason why their taxes should not come to fifty cents on each gallon of cream handled," announced B. E. Hitchcock, deputy collector of internal revenue, this morning.

Mr. Hitchcock is now stationed in the Federal Building here and will have charge of the collection of all government taxes for Burleigh, Dunn, Emmons, Grant, McLean, Mercer, Martin, Albright, and Son counties.

"Retailers have been too careless about making their federal tax returns," Mr. Hitchcock said. "We are going to check up on them and see that correct returns are made. In case a dealer collects cream in bulk it will be advisable for him to keep a record of bulk sales. Fifty cents on each gallon of cream sold is about the proper tax return, when sold over the counter."

"Computers doing about the same amount of business will be checked against each other. If they use approximately the same quantity of fruit juices there is no reason why their tax returns should vary very much."

He also stated that remittances should be made payable to W. E. Byrilly, Internal Revenue Collector, Fargo, N. D. Returns must be filed during the month following the period for which the return is made.

JACOBSON HEADS GRAIN CAR MEN

HARDING WOULD CHOOSE MEN OF ABILITY FOR THE CABINET

Likens Congress to Board of Directors, Cabinet to Executive Board, President to Chairman of Board and People as Stockholders in Characteristic Interview in Which He Also Discusses Himself.

Marion, Ohio, July 21.—Senator Warren G. Harding, republican presidential candidate, in an extensive interview, discussed many of the vital phases of the campaign, and a characteristic view of himself.

"I really do not know why they should have nominated me," he mused with a grave look in his eyes, "except that by temperament and habit I am a harmonizer and had started to bring the party together and make it an effective agency of government."

Senator Harding drew a picture of his happy existence as a member of the United States senate and in what he said there was enough feeling to make it appear he almost regretted that honors had been thrust upon him that would end his senate career.

President's Power Attacked

He discussed the powers assumed by the president while the war was on as a matter of war necessity.

"While we were at war," he said, "I was in hearty accord with giving the fullest powers to the executive but now that the war is over there should be no attempt on the part of the executive branch of the government to hold the legislative branch in subjection or ignore it."

Favors Business Administration

"If I was to make a comparison of our popular government to one of our modern and highly successful business establishments, I should liken congress to the board of directors, the cabinet to the executive board, which is always composed of a very limited number, and the president to the chairman of the executive board whose function is solely to carry out the policies of the directors and make recommendations subject to their approval.

"I think this about the vice presidency. I have been a witness for the last five years to the utter inactivity of the second official of our republic. I have always felt that Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, with his notable common sense and practical view on things, could have been very helpful in leading the executive know what was in the minds of the senators over whose deliberations he presides, and through his more open contact with the public, convey to the president what is in the minds of the people.

"I think the second official of the republic should be something more than a mere substitute waiting for someone to die or become incapacitated."

BOY CORN WIZARD BREAKS RECORD

PRESTON MOODY

FREEMONT, Ind.—Preston Moody, 15, is the champion junior corn-grower of this state. He won the title in the Purdue University contest by raising 147.3 bushels of corn on an acre of ground near his home here. Sixteen hundred boys and girls entered the contest. This is a new record in Indiana corn production.

ed for the performance of his function.

Lovely Work in Senate

"There may be something lacking in me," mused the man who aspires to become the next occupant of the White House, "although I hope not. Do you know I would have been the happiest man in Chicago if I had not been nominated? I mean that, too. I loved the United States senate. It provided me with an environment entirely to my liking. I think the senate affords the best and most beautiful there is for a man who wants to be in public life."

Senator Harding believes that internationalization has about run its course in the United States government. He doubts whether the people will listen with as much interest to campaign speeches on the much discussed and debated League of Nations covenant as the democrats, judging from their action at San Francisco appear to believe. As for the senator himself, he will give a great deal of his time during the campaign to the discussion of the internal problems.

Taxation System Held Wrong

"Our whole taxation system is wrong," said the senator. "It is war taxation in times of peace and must be changed. I was willing to accept the excess profits tax as a war measure because it embodied the best promise we had of quick relief, but no country can go on toward an assured industrial future with a tax on excess profits. Experience has shown that it is inevitably passed on to the consumer that is the great majority of the American people."

While the relation between taxation of that kind and increased cost of living is obvious and close, Senator Harding said that there is only one radical remedy for the high cost of living, and that is economy. What can be done by governments, state or federal, the best would be purely supplementary. There is no formula.

"The best thing about my sovereignty remedy for the high cost of living is that it lies in the hands of the people themselves," Senator Harding said. "I cannot think of anything comparable as a cure to economy, frugality, even to the point of self-denial, coupled with thrift. You cannot stop the high cost of living as long as gold flows continuously in a yellow current from consumer to producer, and what all the people seem to think of is to gratify their tastes, no matter what the cost. Of course, there must be a restoration of efficiency in production that will help, but until we have wrought deflation and restored the dollar to its value of one hundred cents you cannot have normal prices. Data has been compiled which show that in the purchase of many manufactured essentials of life the dollar is worth only 40 per cent. of what it was worth prior to the period of war prices."

WEALTHY MAN AND EMPLOYEE BOTH VANISH

Double Disappearance Results in Search of Two Contingents For Missing Man

OFFER REWARD OF $50,000

Trust Corporation is Made to Take Care of Man's Estate Until He is Found

Toronto, July 21.—The double disappearance of Ambrose J. Small, millionaire theatrical man of this city, and his secretary, John Doughty, both well known citizens of Toronto, has been one of the most mystifying cases with which the Canadian police have had to deal. Small has been missing since December 2 and Doughty since December 28, last.

The whole continent of America has been a field for search by detectives for trace of the missing man, and circulars describing Mr. Small and offering rewards for the recovery of him, dead or alive, have been sent to almost every country in the civilized world.

Mr. Small had just put through a deal for the sale of his interests in a string of theatres in Canada at $1,750,000 to a syndicate known as Trans-Canada Theaters, Limited, and a few hours before his disappearance, on December 2 he had received a check for $1,000,000 in connection with the sale. This check was deposited in his bank. On that day he had had lunch with his wife downtown, and had promised her to be home to dinner in the evening. He had attended to some business late that afternoon and about 7 o'clock started for home, so far as is known. The last person known to have seen him was his favorite newsboy, from whom Mr. Small bought the evening papers.

Facts Held Back

The fact that Mr. Small was missing was not made public until three or four weeks had elapsed. In the first week in January the first circulars asking for information as to Mr. Small's whereabouts were sent out by the local police authorities, and a reward of $500 was offered. A short time afterward the reward was increased to $5,000. Then on the first of June a reward of $50,000 was offered by Mrs. Small for information regarding Mr. Small's whereabouts, if alive. And $15,000 for the recovery of his body if dead.

The mystery of Mr. Small's absence was accentuated by the disappearance of John Doughty, who had been his private secretary for many years. Doughty has not been seen or heard from, so far as the authorities are aware, since December 28, 1919. In June, 1920, the discovery was made that $150,000 on Victory bonds were missing from the safety deposit vault where they had been placed by Mr. Small, and it was stated that Doughty had had access to the vault. Thereupon circulars were issued offering $5,000 reward for the arrest of John Doughty on a charge of having abducted Ambrose Small, and $5,000 for Doughty's arrest on a charge of having stolen the missing Victory bonds.

By a special act of the Ontario legislature Mr. Small was declared an "absentee," and a trust corporation of Ottawa, was appointed trustee of Mr. Small's estate.

Brunswick Principles In Fine Tire Making

The reason you are interested in the name on your tire is that it identifies the maker. By knowing the maker you can judge his ideals of manufacture.

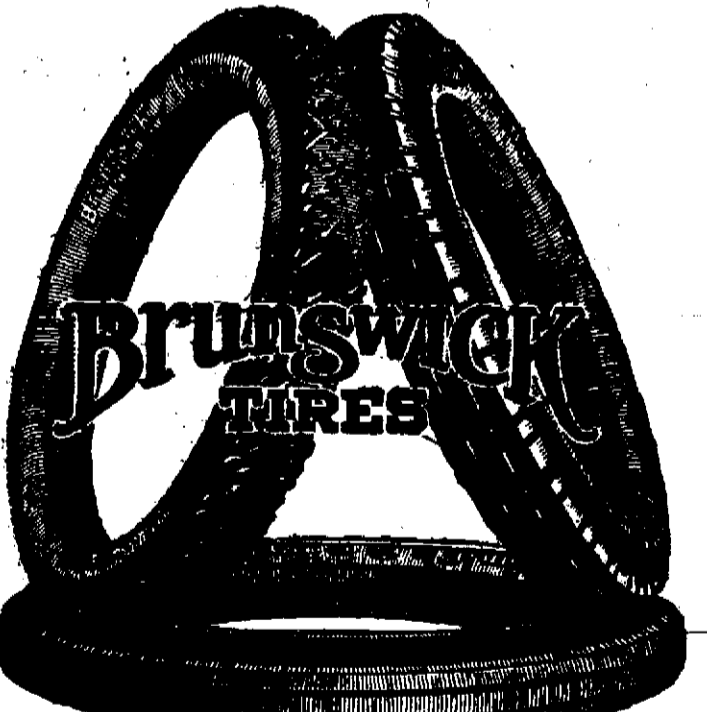

The only secret of a super-tire lies in the principles of the maker. His standards decide the quality. For there are no secrets in the tire industry.

What you get depends on what is behind the name on your tire. Brunswick, as you know, means a very old concern, jealous of its good name. Since 1845 the House of Brunswick has been famous the world over for the quality of its products.

The Brunswick Tire is all that you expect—and more. Your first one will be a revelation. You'll agree that you've never known a better. And you'll tell your friends. So spreads the news among motorists. The Brunswick is the most welcome tire that ever came to market.

Try one Brunswick Tire. Learn how good a tire can be built. And remember, it costs no more than like-type tires.

GERMANS WILL GET BACK HUGE SUMS UNDER LAW

Amendment to Trading With Enemy Act Provides for Return of $150,000,000

Washington, July 21.—The amendment to the trading with the Enemy Act passed by the recent session of Congress authorize the return of $150,000,000 of enemy property, according to estimates of the Alien Property Custodian's office. There will remain more than $350,000,000 in seized property in the hands of that official.

Under the amendment, the "A. P. C.", as the office is generally known in government circles, will release property of several American heiresses who married foreign noblemen, property of the German embassy, enemy diplomats, all aliens who were interned, citizens of new nations and states created by the treaty of peace, and women of allied or neutral countries who married enemy subjects.

Americans who were held in Germany during the war and whose property here was taken over, may now recover title, no matter where they are resident.

The amendment also extends the privilege of prosecuting claims against enemy debtors to creditors in allied and neutral nations on conditions that the same privilege is extended to American creditors by those nations holding enemy property.

There is to be no "informal return" of property by the Alien Property Custodian under the new legislation, as was announced today. The procedure to be followed in securing possession of seized property involves formal application to the president, and filing of a claim on the A. P. C. After the application has been approved and returned, the Attorney General will issue an order for the release of the property at issue.

50,000 TAKEN BY DRY AGENTS

Washington, July 21.—More than 50,000 arrests were made during the first six months of constitutional prohibition just closed. Prohibition Commissioner Kramer's annual report, soon to be issued, is expected to estimate.

Data on which to base the report is being received from enforcement agents from all parts of the country.

A large percentage of arrests were made by local police cooperating with Commissioner Kramer, but are not directly responsible to him. The number of these arrests can only be estimated since reports are received only from federal agents.

STEEL BOOKINGS ARE FAR AHEAD, SAYS NEW REPORT

Unfilled Orders Indicate Can Run on Present Orders Until April, 1921

Pittsburgh, July 21.—The Steel Corporation's unfilled tonnage statement for June presents a different aspect, according to the viewpoint. The 38,351 tons increase looks small by comparison with increases averaging 555,000 tons a month during the 12 months preceding. May itself having shown 580,715 tons increase, while the June increase looks large from the viewpoint that a very quiet steel market prevailed during the month.

Production in June may be estimated at about 90 per cent. of capacity. This percentage may seem high, but it is based upon the corporation's rating of its capacity which seems like a low one. Shipments were probably between 65 and 75 per cent. of capacity, the bookings only slightly exceeding the shipments, while in May the bookings were considerably in excess of capacity.

The unfilled tonnage July 1 is 10,978,817 tons, and of this amount something like three-quarters of a million tons is produced but not shipped. The remainder is equal to seven and a half months of production at rated capacity, or, say, nine months' of production on a guess as to what will occur based on what has occurred. Thus the corporation would be sold up to April 1, 1921, as an average date, but its actual sales are of course much further ahead in some products than in others.

50,000 TAKEN BY DRY AGENTS

Washington, July 21.—More than 50,000 arrests were made during the first six months of constitutional prohibition just closed. Prohibition Commissioner Kramer's annual report, soon to be issued, is expected to estimate.

Data on which to base the report is being received from enforcement agents from all parts of the country.

A large percentage of arrests were made by local police cooperating with Commissioner Kramer, but are not directly responsible to him. The number of these arrests can only be estimated since reports are received only from federal agents.

STEEL BOOKINGS ARE FAR AHEAD, SAYS NEW REPORT

Unfilled Orders Indicate Can Run on Present Orders Until April, 1921

Pittsburgh, July 21.—The Steel Corporation's unfilled tonnage statement for June presents a different aspect, according to the viewpoint. The 38,351 tons increase looks small by comparison with increases averaging 555,000 tons a month during the 12 months preceding. May itself having shown 580,715 tons increase, while the June increase looks large from the viewpoint that a very quiet steel market prevailed during the month.

Production in June may be estimated at about 90 per cent. of capacity. This percentage may seem high, but it is based upon the corporation's rating of its capacity which seems like a low one. Shipments were probably between 65 and 75 per cent. of capacity, the bookings only slightly exceeding the shipments, while in May the bookings were considerably in excess of capacity.

The unfilled tonnage July 1 is 10,978,817 tons, and of this amount something like three-quarters of a million tons is produced but not shipped. The remainder is equal to seven and a half months of production at rated capacity, or, say, nine months' of production on a guess as to what will occur based on what has occurred. Thus the corporation would be sold up to April 1, 1921, as an average date, but its actual sales are of course much further ahead in some products than in others.

SIX TAKE EXAMS IN WINCHESTER PRIZE CONTEST

Examinations of the competitors for the Winchester prize were held in the Will school Monday afternoon. Nine eighth grade graduates were eligible to compete for this prize, but only six took the examinations. Those taking the examination were Mary Ellingson of Sterling; Rosmary Lomas, of Bismarck; Laura Rupp, of Baldwin; Henry Swanson of Carleton; Eva Jacobson of Menoken, and Edward Leithan of Bloodcreek. The examination, which covers work in arithmetic, was held to determine who should receive the $25 prize, established in memory of Judge Winchester. The results of the examination cannot be announced until the papers have all been corrected which will probably require a day or two more. The county superintendent's office reports that all the papers are of high quality.

One day on the way to the studio she spied a man sitting in the gutter selling pencils. A sign reading "I Am Blind" hung around his neck. Impulsively Miss Gish had her car draw up to the curb and dropped a dollar into the hat.

"Thank you, Miss Gish," said the man. "I wonder if you would think it impertinent if I asked you to send me one of your photographs. I always attend the movies when your pictures are being shown." But I thought you were blind," gasped the startled little star. "Well, Miss," he explained, "I'm sort of like an owl—only blind in the daytime."

BISMARCK
A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stages of one of the best known New York theatres was photographed for the screen in the new Irene Castel picture, "The Amateur Wife," which will be the attraction at the Bismarck theatre two days commencing tonight. According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl lately arrived in America to find her mother a musical comedy queen. She appears on the scene while her mother is performing and is scandalized by the rather abbreviated costume which her fond parent wears.

Girls from one of the popular Broadway revues were engaged to the scene and disposed before the footlights under the guiding hand of Director Edward Dillon.

"The Amateur Wife" is declared to be unique in theme and to have an unusual appeal. The leading man is William C. Carleton. Lane Martin wrote the scenario from a magazine story by Nalbro Bartlett. It is a Paramount Artcraft picture.

'ARRESTED' ON 1878 WARRANT

Marion (Ind.) Police Captain Given Document as a Boyhood Souvenir.

Marion, Ind.—Capt. Edward Masterson of the Marion police department, was arrested here on a warrant sworn out May 11, 1878, charging him with "playing at ball."

The captain explained that the warrant resulted from a ball game on a main street here in which he knocked a ball through the window of a bakery.

When "arraigned," the mayor reserved judgment, and the warrant was given to the captain to keep as a souvenir. A policeman found the warrant among old records in the city hall, and served it when the captain reported for duty one day recently.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER

(Established 1873)

A FARCICAL LAW

North Dakota Republicans and those who masquerade as Republicans but who at heart are Socialists and committed to the theories and vagaries of that party meet today to perfect county Republican organizations and to name members of the Republican state central committee which will meet in Bismarck in September for organization.

The situation in many counties is ludicrous and presents a situation which should be corrected as soon as possible. In the meantime all the Republican North Dakota Republicans and those who masmitted to Republican principles and pledged to redeem the party and purge its ranks of the interlopers.

In many counties of the state where the anti-Townley organization won, they lost the Republican control because under our fantastic primary law one vote is as potent as a million when it comes to precinctmen.

The Burleigh county situation is typical. South Wilton, for instance, with its precinctman representing a constituency of seven votes has as much voice as the precinctman from a Bismarck city ward who may represent 600 voters. The league failed to capture the Burleigh county vote but because the Nonpartisan league precincts are numerically greater than the anti-league precincts but much smaller in voting power, they may control the so-called Republican county organization.

This is a presidential year and the necessity for a state Republican organization committed to the principles of the party is paramount. The national campaign cannot be handled by Townleyites who have been flirting with the Third Party enthusiasts at Chicago and who are committed to socialism, communism and to the principles of the Russian revolution as promulgated by Lenin and Trotsky.

Mr. William Lemke, pseudo-Republican state chairman, has no more moral right to the position he holds than Eugene Debs or any other red card Socialist. He has the legal title which the primary law gives him, but that carries with it no power to direct the Republicans of the state who are violently opposed to the economic program of the league and to the national political affiliations of Townley, Lemke, Frazier and others who are heartily in sympathy with the Third Party movement.

North Dakota Republicans are not going to be directed by any soviet political headquarters. They must act independently of the Townley-Lemke political abortion.

The power to function as Republicans in North Dakota has been well nigh abrogated by the primary law, but those who believe in the principles of the party have not forfeited their independence nor will they recognize political leaders who have no moral right to the title they are parading and haunting.

THE BATHING GIRL

Which is right—

The councilor of the town of Tonbridge, England, who said if young men were to see young girls in the modern bathing suit they would not marry;

Or Mrs. H. A. L. Fisher, wife of the minister of education, who contends that instead of militating against marriage it "would lead to the best marriages, and the marriages which result in real happiness, because they are based on knowledge and understanding as well as true love?"

The question is as old as the race itself. The two views as expressed are the views of two sections of the human race.

Does modesty consist in concealment or revelation? There is a fundamental difference in the views of those who believe, with sincerity, no doubt, that the human body is something which should be concealed and mentioned only with extreme reserve, and those who believe it is a beautiful, healthful and glorious thing in itself.

The view of the first of these schools of thought is that sex is a matter of shame, that it must not be mentioned in public, that knowledge of it must be scrupulously kept from the young; that ignorance constitutes purity.

The view of the second is the view that is coming more and more to be held by educators, physicians, scientists, and those who have given most thought to the question of sex. It is that youth and maiden should grow up together in open, frank and honest comradeship without a sense of secrecy and shame over the facts of sex. It is that boys and girls should be taught the wonderful facts of sex, taught to admire rightly the handiwork of God as expressed in the human form, taught that healthy, beautiful bodies are to be admired, not regarded with shame, and that love and marriage and children are clean, healthful, important things which deserve not to be clouded over by mystery, ignorance and superstition, but thought about openly, frankly and cleanly.

REST AND QUIET

Now comes the time when many persons, worn by noise and confusion of the city, go to the country for rest and quiet. There, while they lie awake in bed at night:

Insects hum, buzz, zizz, zipp, trill, chirr, quaver, whir, tick and click!

Frogs croak!

A small dog yelps, yarrs, yawls, and goes "wuff! wuff!"

A big one barks. He barks at his shadow. He barks at the moon. Between times he just barks!

A windmill squeaks!

A rooster crows. Another answers. The first crows back!

With daylight the noises rise to a chorus of clucking hens, quacking ducks, neighing horses, mooing cows, squealing and grunting pigs, baaing sheep, while early-rising humans make more noise than all the rest combined!

The point of it is one becomes accustomed to any familiar sound, while unusual noises are disturbing.

The noisiest place to a stranger is likely to be some thin-walled hotel at a crowded summer resort.

There are plenty of persons with strong nerves who are not easily disturbed. One such wrote to a summer resort to which he went last summer. He wishes to return. But he insists that he must have a room in the main building.

"I don't want the room I had last summer in the annex," he wrote seriously. "I'm kind of funny that way. I can't sleep over a bowling alley!"

It all depends on who gets "hi" in Ohio.

Vegetarians are men who smoke the cigars of today.

McAdoo would have the government pay presidential campaign expenses. By issuing Bonds of Hope?

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinions of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

GOV. COX UNDERWRITES MR. WILSON

Governor Cox, after a conference with Mr. Wilson, pledges himself to assume the liabilities of the president's foreign policy and to discharge them, if elected to succeed him. "What he promised, I shall, if elected, endeavor with all my strength to give," is the last sentence of the Democratic candidate's brief statement. For further particulars the public is referred to his formal speech yet to be made in acceptance of the nomination.

Governor Cox could scarcely do less. To disavow Wilsonism would be fatal to his candidacy, though complete assumption of all of Mr. Wilson's pledges, those that have been kept secret as well as those that have been publicly insisted upon, involves almost equally great dangers.

But the governor take the less fateful horn of the dilemma. Perhaps he counts on escaping the condemnation that certainly would be visited upon Mr. Wilson, were he the candidate, by taking refuge behind generalizations and ambiguities. At any rate, we have now his pledge, to be followed by specifications later on.

Meanwhile, Senator Harding demands specific answers to certain questions, answers which the American people are entitled to have in the fullest detail before they pass upon the claims of Governor Cox to their support. The Democratic platform pledges the candidate to complete support of the administration's foreign policies, despite the weasel words inserted at San Francisco by opponents of the Wilson Covenant.

It is well, therefore, to get down to precise details. Does Governor Cox support Article X as it stands, or does he favor "cutting the heart out of the Treaty" by excluding it or changing its substance? Does he favor the Armenian mandate, to which the president has pledged himself? Does he endorse and insist upon Mr. Wilson's solution of the Fiume question? Does he follow Mr. Wilson in desiring to give Thrace over to defeated Bulgaria, or would he confirm its possession by our own ally, Greece?

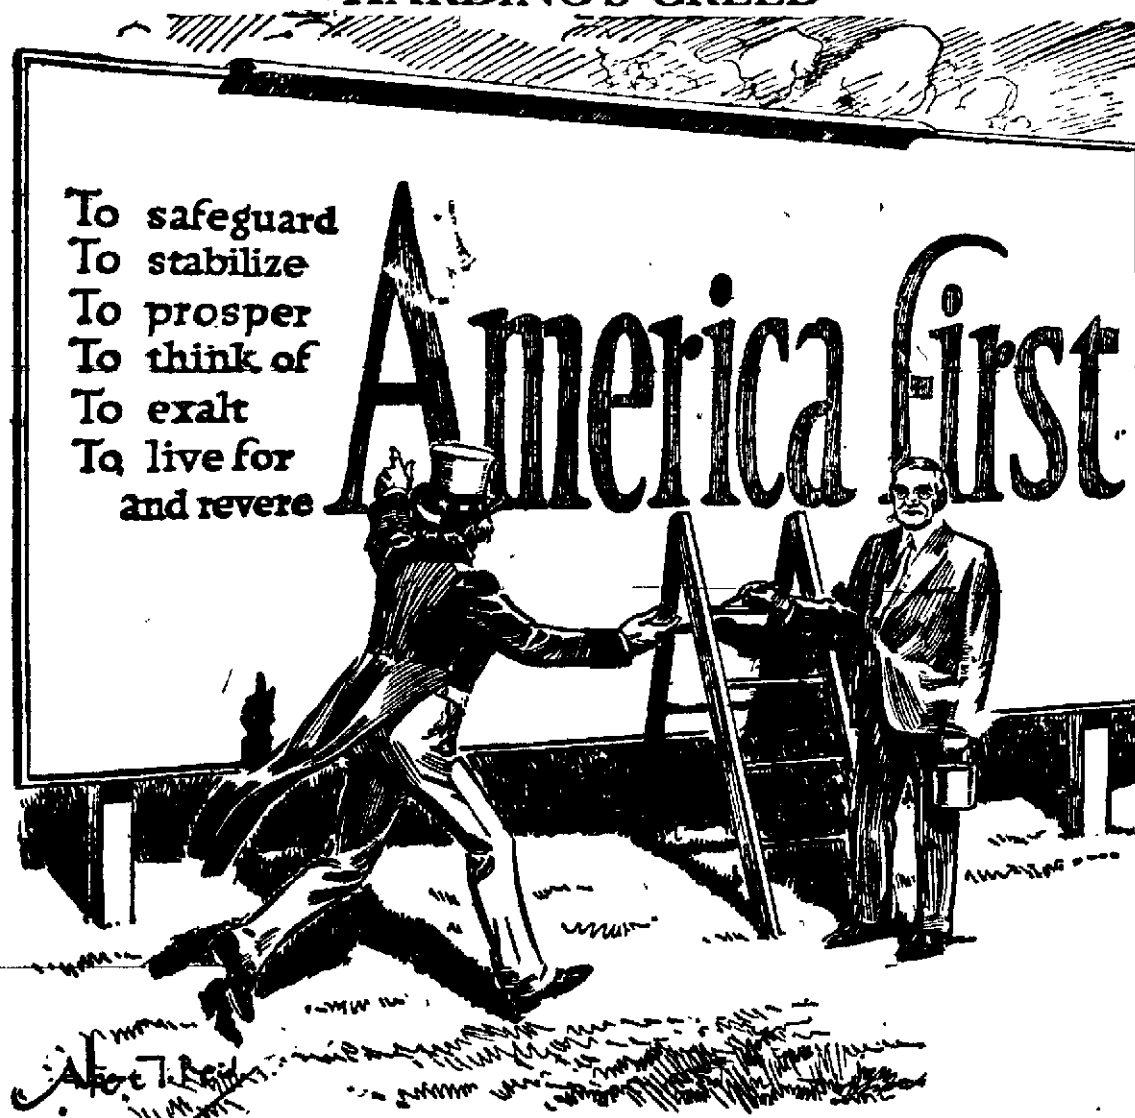

And what secret promises and pledges of Mr. Wilson does the Democratic candidate now underwrite? Let us have the full details of what he undertakes to endeavor with all his strength to carry out.

If Governor Cox really assumes the full burden of Wilsonism as he says, he must stand stoutly for ratification of the Treaty and Covenant unchanged in any essential respect. He must be against any and all reservations that protect American rights and privileges. He must stand ready as president to send American troops and ships anywhere in the world to preserve the territories and status of any member of the League from attack. According to Mr. Wilson himself, that is a moral, if not a legal obligation.

The American people will be satisfied with nothing less than the most explicit candor from Governor Cox in these matters. They are not in the least disposed to send him to the White House to carry out pledges and promises of which they know nothing or of which they strongly disapprove.

Governor Cox cannot stop with generalizations. He must give the country a bill of particulars.—Minneapolis Journal.

HARDING'S CREED

Uncle Sam: "Shake, Warren,—My idea exactly!"

AS IT LOOKS TO ME

Washington, July 21—Twenty million people are members of the Russian Cooperative Societies, through which a large percentage of this country's new trade with Russia will be carried on.

In order that American exporters may be informed as to these societies, how they are organized and supported, what commodities they handle, and what their relationship is with the new Russian government, a booklet on the "Russian Cooperative Movement" is being issued by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. Although trade with Soviet Russia has been thrown open, under limited restrictions, through all commercial channels, it is expected that the major share of whatever trade may result in the immediate future from the lifting of the blockade will be with the cooperative societies.

Not the least of the matters of interest that may be disclosed by the lifting of the trade barrier, against Russia, will be the strength and efficiency maintained by the cooperatives even under the strain and stress of war and revolution.

All types of cooperative societies were repressed, like other popular movements, under the old regime in Russia. They proved their vitality by ready though gradual growth, says Dr. Frederick E. Lee, economic intelligence section of the U. S. War Trade Board's Russian Bureau.

Briefly, these societies are divided into three groups: First, consumers' societies which enable their members to make direct purchases and thus dispense with middlemen; second, producers' societies which arrange to make direct sales of what their members produce and thus eliminate middlemen, and third, credit societies, which form the credit framework for the great structure of cooperative buying and selling.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

Sherwood, N. D.

The Anti-Socialist Crusaders are up there in a region where it is evident there has not been much light shed on the vital issues that confront us at this time. We find many good well meaning people in these neglected localities who are glad to get the light. Almost every day men come to us after our meeting is over and tell us that they never saw these Socialistic tendencies in that light before and declare they are done with Townleyism.

The open air meeting is surely the way to reach the masses. We get the attention of hundreds of people in the open air on the street that we could never get into a hall of any kind. Our bugler calls the crowd together by a few of our familiar Army calls and then our two first class musicians give a short musical program and when that is over the audiences are in good shape to listen attentively to whatever Mr. Arnold and I have to say to them and with very few exceptions we have a rousing enthusiastic meeting. At every meeting we distribute literature, the best there is published on the Socialistic question, which the people are glad to receive and will read with profit to themselves.

This in my judgment is the only way to get literature into the hands of the people so that they will read it. Nine ty per cent of the campaign literature that is sent out by mail is thrown away and never looked at. To my mind it is time our people who are opposed to the Townley Socialistic regime get busy and put over a campaign that will reach every small unit in the state.

MAN WHO SENT 3,000 TO PRISON
RETIRES FROM SECRET SERVICE

Louisville, Ky., July 21.—Having sent almost 3,000 counterfeiters to federal prison since he entered the U. S. secret service in 1886, Capt. Schuyler A. Donnella, "Grand Old Man" of the Customs House here, believes he has done his "bit" and has resigned, effective August 20. He is 73 years old.

Among the many counterfeiting cliques that Capt. Donnella helped to break up was that led by John Roberts, said to have manufactured $1,000,000 in fake notes; the Montgomery gang in Butler county, Pennsylvania, 23 of whose members were convicted; and the McCarty gang of Omaha. He trailed the McCarty crowd for two years. Donnella arrested Jacob, maker of a Monroe $1,000 bill, who had passed 20 of them before they were detected, and helped to bring Miles Ogle, a Cincinnati, to book.

The veteran secret service man had many narrow escapes. He was shot in the ear at Dayton, O., by a man named Guydon, a member of the Driggs-Guydon gang of paper money makers, which he rounded up.

Capt. Donnella came here in 1899. Before that he had served as a detective in Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Atlanta. His reputation for fearlessness gained while chief of police at Huntington, W. Va., won him his appointment to the secret service

FLIES.

The house fly (Musca domestica), which represents over ninety per cent of those found indoors, deposits probably one hundred and fifty eggs at a time. Only ten or twelve days elapse between the dropping of the eggs and the appearance of the full-grown insects. The females of the new brood in turn begin to lay their eggs in a few days after birth.

The development of the fly is similar to that of the mosquito. First the eggs are deposited, within twenty-four hours these are hatched and the larvae appear; after a further period of five to six days the latter pass to the pupal stage, and from this to the full-grown fly, in three to six days.

The larvae are well known as "maggots" and are about one-fourth to an inch long. They are white crawling bodies, having the appearance of caterpillars. They are commonly found during the warm weather upon almost any manure heap, dead animal or other decomposing substance.

Flies will breed wherever there is any kind of filth. Carelessness regarding manure heaps, garbage and any other forms of decomposing matter is responsible for the constant annoyance of flies in farmhouses and country homes.

Unfortunately, the public has not a very clear understanding as to the means by which flies may be eliminated, or the object sought in carrying out this important sanitary measure. Innumerable poisons, fly catchers, and "swatters" are on sale, devised for the purpose of trapping or destroying flies. While these are very popular, they have little or no practical value, for as in the case of the mosquito, the extermination of flies can be successfully accomplished only by the destruction of their breeding places.

Forty-five thousand men and $50,000,000 have left the state of Nebraska for western Canada in the last 20 years, according to a report by the Canadian government office at Omaha.

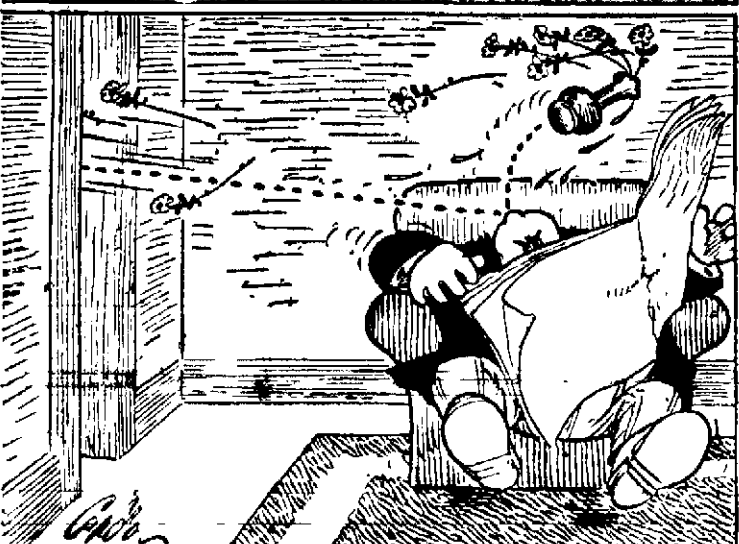

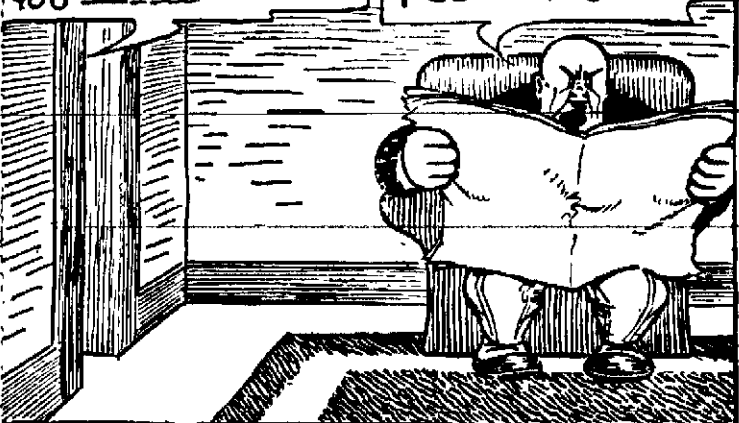

Last year, there were 364,128 sheep in Alberta, which produced 2,115,000 pounds of wool valued at $12,000,000.

AND DON'T READ THE PAPER WHILE I'M CALLING YOUR ATTENTION TO YOUR FAULTS!! THE NEXT TIME YOU

"SAY IT WITH FLOWERS," MRS. TRUE, "SAY IT WITH FLOWERS"!!!

JOHN H. PACKER, well known electrical engineer, of Liberty, Mo., who says that to look at him today no one would ever take him to be the same man he was before Tanlac restored his health. Has gained forty-four pounds.

"For two years previous to the time I began taking Tanlac, I lived principally on a raw-egg diet. During this time I was laid up in the hospital for five months and practically no hope was held out for my recovery. I don't suppose any man had a worse case of stomach trouble than I did, in fact they said I could not live.

"Tanic did not seem to help me much at first, and I had almost made up my mind to give it up, but if I had given it up it would have been the mistake of my life. I stuck to it for a fair test and am thankful that I did for after finishing my fourth bottle, my appetite was better and I noticed myself improving.

"This encouraged me to keep on taking it and in two months I was able to eat a good square meal and digest it as good as anybody. Then it wasn't long until I got so I could go back to my work and at the time I had finished my last bottle, I found I had actually gained forty-four pounds in weight.

"To look at me today no one would ever take me to be the same man I was when I began taking Tanlac."

The above remarkable statement was made recently by John H. Packer, well-known electrical engineer of Liberty, Missouri.

Tanic is sold in Bismarck by Jos. Breslow, in Driscoll by N. D. and J. H. Barrette, in Wing by H. P. Homan, and in Strasburg by Strausburg Drug Co. advt.

WRITE IT 'MILK,' NOT 'MILCH'

Latter Term Is Too Teutonic, According to Federal Department of Agriculture.

Washington.—Hereafter it will be "milk cow" and not "milch cow" at least so far as the department of agriculture is concerned.

This decision marks the termination of a controversy in which etymologists in the department have had not a little interest. Those defending "milch" have pointed to scriptural use and certain of the classics as establishing precedents, while the opposition has contended that dairymen, ranchmen and farmers in general use "milk" instead of "milch" almost universally.

The advocates of "milk" also favored that word because they contended it was more strictly an English word, while "milch" was akin to German. Since Americanization of language as well as ideals is an article in every patriot's creed, it is thought that this last sally of the "milk" defenders helped as much as any to decide the question in their favor.

KILL SEA LIONS FOR SHOES

Fishermen to Carry Out the Suggestion of British Columbian Premier.

Prince Rupert, B. C.—Premier Oliver's suggestion that sea lions in this province be slaughtered and their skins used for making shoes has met with approval of fishermen here, and plans were under way for killing the animals on a large scale.

Fishermen pointed out that killing of sea lions also would save the fish in these waters, for the average sea lion devours 50 pounds of food fish in a day.

One fisherman recently killed 700 sea lions with the aid of three companions in two days on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Woman Uses Hatpin at Bargain Counter.

Spokane—Because she was charged with having used a hatpin in a bargain sale rush at the opening of a new 10-cent store here, Mrs. F. J. Brown was arrested on a charge of third-degree assault on F. Langlois, a fellow shopper. "What else could a woman do?" she asked at the police station.

Tommy in a Moving Picture Stunt.

Columbus, Ind.—Tommy, a large Maltese cat, found himself marooned on top of a telephone pole by the rapid rise of a creek. The owner of the cat went to the next pole, which the water did not reach, and called to the cat. The animal finally walked the cable between the poles to safety.

VALLEY BUNCH TAKES TUMBLE IN FIRST GAME

Bismarck Wins, 10 to 5, in Well Played Game at Capital Park Before Good Crowd

TEAMS PLAY AGAIN TODAY

Bismarck battled out a victory over Valley City last evening after getting away to a bad start. The score was 10 to 5.

The game was not ragged as the score might indicate. It was well played on both sides. Two of the errors were due to the fact that the sun bothered the players.

The Valley City team started out as if it intended to murder. Andy Anderson then settled down and the valley bunch only got three hits in the remainder of the game though they got two runs in the second.

Bismarck began slugging in the second, driving in three runs and in the third drove Dennis to get an Angel taking his place.

Robert's, Bismarck center fielder, was the bright star of the game. He made two nice catches in center field and drove out two clean hits which aided in the scoring.

The two teams play again at 6 o'clock this evening. Most of the fans will close early and a big crowd is expected to be on hand for the game.

GEORGE SISLER, BROWN'S FAST STAR, BEING HAUFED AS SECOND TY COBB

GEORGE SISLER, BROWN'S FAST STAR, BEING HAUFED AS SECOND TY COBB

They've called Ty Cobb the Georgia Peach for the last 15 years, but at this point in the drama enters Peachy George.

It now remains for the world to start calling the Brown star—THE GREAT GEORGE SISLER.

This tribute is certainly due the superb St. Louis first baseman. Pushed by one of the hardest hitting fields in the history of the game, Sisler is climbing higher into the hall of baseball fame each week.

During the last four years of Ty Cobb's reign in the Johnson family of writers the Brown first baseman has been approaching greatness.

This year with the Georgian Peach in the background due partly to a get away slump and later to accident, Sisler has occupied the batting throne.

His bat has clicked through the first half of the 1920 American League season at a 477 pace.

Each week he is being forced to extend his powers. For looming back of him is a wonderful trio of rivals: Joe Jackson, Lefty Speaker and the rim-paging Babe Ruth.

As in the general rule with all ball players, their fielding improves along with their hitting. A new confidence is born in a player when he is competing regularly. He takes bigger chances. The crowd psychology boosts him and the breaks go with him.

Dempsey would fight Fulton, he declares.

New York July 21—If there is one fellow I would rather meet than any other it is Fred Fulton of Minnesota. This was the statement made by Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world.

Now that I have vindicated myself of the charges preferred against me I am ready to give my attention to boxing. He said I beat Fulton once and can turn the trick again.

Dempsey has erased the color line and stands ready to make a match with a colored fighter either Harry Wells or another.

This statement is contained in an announcement given out for publication by the International Sporting club which will stage the bout between Wells and Fulton at the Newark Sportsmen's club next Monday.

Goodyear Tires in the 30x3-, 30x3 1/2- and 31x4-inch sizes are manufactured with characteristic Goodyear care to build high relative value into every carcass and tread.

Last year more cars taking these sizes were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

In order to make these tires widely available to users of such cars, we are operating the world's largest tire factory devoted to these sizes.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car requiring one of these sizes, go now to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread... $23.50

30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread... $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casualties when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3 1/2 size $4.50 in waterproof bag

Paris July 21—French trainers at the Joinville school for soldier athletes claim to have discovered one of the greatest runners of all times in the person of one Adhadahine, a sergeant in an Algerian colored company. The Arab, who three months ago knew absolutely nothing about running has been turning in 51 seconds to the 400 metres quite regularly. The Black Hope, as the French call him, running alone and unpaced negotiated the 800 meters in 1:54 flat. He is entered at Antwerp in the 400 and 800 met races.
